Australian National Flag Day 2018

I am pleased to send my best wishes to all Australians on the occasion of Australian National Flag Day 2018.

This important occasion reminds us of the role we can each play in being good citizens and making our communities stronger.

On behalf of the NSW Government, I encourage all Australians to fly the Australian flag on 3 September 2018, and I thank the Australian National Flag Association for your dedication and hard work.
