Australian National Flag Day 2018

I am delighted to be one of many Australians celebrating Australian National Flag Day for 2018.

The annual celebration of the first flying of the Australian flag is a time for us to reflect upon and celebrate many of the challenges and successes which have helped build our nation.

The flag is the clear representation of our nation and our people, whether it is on the shoulders of our troops, flying over national monuments both here or around the world or celebrated by Australians globally.

Our flag is a unifying symbol, one which binds all Australians and continues to promote our national identity, and I offer my very best wishes for all Australians on this significant day.

Yours sincerely,
